To the student: Please give your considered, candid responses to the questions below. Your comments will be important to the evaluation and improvement of learning and teaching at Lafayette College.

PLEASE FILL OUT THE FORM NEATLY

- Use a No. 2 pencil only.
- Do not use ink, ball point, or felt tip pens.
- Make solid marks that fill the circle completely.

- Erase cleanly any marks you wish to change.
- Make no stray marks on this form.
- Do not fold, tear, or mutilate this form.

1. LEARNING: What have you learned from this course? Consider, as appropriate, how the course deepened your critical or analytical abilities, factual knowledge, understanding of concepts, creativity, communication skills, and ability to pursue further work in the subject.

More of the details of French grammar and more about the history of French civilization, better writing skills

2. YOUR PARTICIPATION: How would you assess your own effort in the course? How much effort did you expend as compared to your other classes?

Considering I am fluent, this course did not require as much effort as my other courses but still had challenging assignments

3. COURSE CONTENT AND FORMAT: How did the various components of the course contribute to your learning? Consider, as appropriate, lectures, readings, writing assignments, problem sets, films, labs, drills, studio work, debates, discussions, presentations, field work, or group work.

I think the readings and exercises on grammar as well as the reductions were very helpful. Most of this class was review for me though, so there was only so much to learn (the review was very helpful though)

1. LEARNING: What have you learned from this course? Consider, as appropriate, how the course deepened your critical or analytical abilities, factual knowledge, understanding of concepts, creativity, communication skills, and ability to pursue further work in the subject.

The areas I feel I learned the most in were the history of France and grammar.

2. YOUR PARTICIPATION: How would you assess your own effort in the course? How much effort did you expend as compared to your other classes?

I put a great deal of effort into this class. There was always a huge amount of homework, so I usually spent at least 2 hours daily work to keep up.

3. COURSE CONTENT AND FORMAT: How did the various components of the course contribute to your learning? Consider, as appropriate, lectures, readings, writing assignments, problem sets, films, labs, drills, studio work, debates, discussions, presentations, field work, or group work.

Personally, I did not find lectures/lessons helpful. Most of my learning came from assigned material that I read or taught myself.

I thought the professor had a hard time conveying the simple ideas to the class. Her French is strong and good for exposing us to hearing the language, but the explanations in person after all the work that was assigned did not seem to balance out.

WHY did you make the recommendation above?

Although this was an upper level class, I felt it was mainly difficult due to all the work assigned followed by a weak explanation. I would have preferred a lesson on grammar and then activities for homework, not assigned work where the material is only explained in a textbook written in French.

Thank you for your time and thoughtful consideration.

This course expanded my creative writing abilities. I also am more confident in oral communication.

2. YOUR PARTICIPATION: How would you assess your own effort in the course? How much effort did you expend as compared to your other classes?

I put a lot of effort into this course. I always complete my work on time and I studied for quizzes/tests. This class's workload was in the average compared to my other classes.

3. COURSE CONTENT AND FORMAT: How did the various components of the course contribute to your learning? Consider, as appropriate, lectures, readings, writing assignments, problem sets, films, labs, drills, studio work, debates, discussions, presentations, field work, or group work.

I think the writing assignments really helped me w/ my grammar and french structure. I wish we had more oral opportunities (assignments) b/c I struggle w/ speaking. The video was okay, the technology was very difficult to use. I recommend letting students complete the video on their own computers w/ apps they know how to use.

6. INSTRUCTION: How effective was the instructor in fostering learning? Consider as appropriate the instructor's ability to enable the development of skills, facilitate discussion, help you to understand concepts, course material, and their significance.

Professor Swanson always answered questions and maintained a healthy learning environment. I liked how she had daily discussions so we could practice our oral abilities; however, since I spoke to other students, I don't know how well I was doing. I enjoyed the writing assignments.

WHY did you make the recommendation above?

I think that French is an important skill, and this course expanded my grammar knowledge as well as my historical understanding of French culture. The class was fun and not too difficult to do well - just need to put in effort though.

1. LEARNING: What have you learned from this course? Consider, as appropriate, how the course deepened your critical or analytical abilities, factual knowledge, understanding of concepts, creativity, communication skills, and ability to pursue further work in the subject.

I have learned how to write so much better in French. My ability to write an essay and be coherent has increased drastically.

2. YOUR PARTICIPATION: How would you assess your own effort in the course? How much effort did you expend as compared to your other classes?

I have put an incredible amount of time, effort, and stress into this class. I have put more effort than any other class.

3. COURSE CONTENT AND FORMAT: How did the various components of the course contribute to your learning? Consider, as appropriate, lectures, readings, writing assignments, problem sets, films, labs, drills, studio work, debates, discussions, presentations, field work, or group work.

I thought the content was fine, however, the amount of homework we received from this class was often way too much, and too time consuming.

The instructor was good however, she never really made an effort to make sure all students had a relatively similar baseline for grammar. Reviewing grammar at the start of the semester would have been helpful.

1. LEARNING: What have you learned from this course? Consider, as appropriate, how the course deepened your critical or analytical abilities, factual knowledge, understanding of concepts, creativity, communication skills, and ability to pursue further work in the subject.

I learned about French civilization and culture and incorporated this knowledge into grammatical exercises.

2. YOUR PARTICIPATION: How would you assess your own effort in the course? How much effort did you expend as compared to your other classes?

I did not need to put a large amount of effort into this course, except for doing the readings which were at times tedious and time-consuming.

3. COURSE CONTENT AND FORMAT: How did the various components of the course contribute to your learning? Consider, as appropriate, lectures, readings, writing assignments, problem sets, films, labs, drills, studio work, debates, discussions, presentations, field work, or group work.

Discussions of the readings in class furthered my understanding of them. I also thought the group work was helpful.

6. INSTRUCTION: How effective was the instructor in fostering learning? Consider as appropriate the instructor's ability to enable the development of skills, facilitate discussion, help you to understand concepts, course material, and their significance.

The instructor was able to facilitate discussions of the material, but I do not feel as if many of my oral and comprehension skills improved a great deal. Also, she spent little to no time reviewing important grammatical concepts.

WHY did you make the recommendation above?

If you need more experience practicing your French skills before moving on to a more advanced course, this class can be helpful. Also, this was the instructor's first time teaching this course so it will most likely improve.

Thank you for your time and thoughtful consideration.
