1. LEARNING: What have you learned from this course? Consider, as appropriate, how the course deepened your critical or analytical abilities, factual knowledge, understanding of concepts, creativity, communication skills, and ability to pursue further work in the subject.

I learned a lot about zombies. The literary articles we read were appropriate to furthering our knowledge of the zombie world, as well as Haitian culture.

2. YOUR PARTICIPATION: How would you assess your own effort in the course? How much effort did you expend as compared to your other classes?

It was a small class, so I participated a lot. Nightly readings and good class discussions encouraged us to participate.

3. COURSE CONTENT AND FORMAT: How did the various components of the course contribute to your learning? Consider, as appropriate, lectures, readings, writing assignments, problem sets, films, labs, drills, studio work, debates, discussions, presentations, field work, or group work.

The films were really interesting. The books were good, too, but they had many double meanings, which led to good discussions, as well as tying into many themes in the semester.
