LAFAYETTE COLLEGE COURSE EVALUATION FORM

Instructor: Swanson

Course: French 441

Section: 1

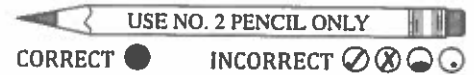

Date: 5/3/17

To the student: Please give your considered, candid responses to the questions below. Your comments will be important to the evaluation and improvement of learning and teaching at Lafayette College.

PLEASE FILL OUT THE FORM NEATLY

- Use a No. 2 pencil only.
- Do not use ink, ball point, or felt tip pens.
- Make solid marks that fill the circle completely.

- Erase cleanly any marks you wish to change.
- Make no stray marks on this form.
- Do not fold, tear, or mutilate this form.

1. LEARNING: What have you learned from this course? Consider, as appropriate, how the course deepened your critical or analytical abilities, factual knowledge, understanding of concepts, creativity, communication skills, and ability to pursue further work in the subject.

Through the multiple types of media, I've learned how to address a single topic from several different lenses. Also, the ability to track influence of these ideas across countries/subjects/media was important.

2. YOUR PARTICIPATION: How would you assess your own effort in the course? How much effort did you expend as compared to your other classes?

I could've done more. Because it's such a high course number, very little grammar takes place, thus if you know the general gist of the homework, I'd get along.

3. COURSE CONTENT AND FORMAT: How did the various components of the course contribute to your learning? Consider, as appropriate, lectures, readings, writing assignments, problem sets, films, labs, drills, studio work, debates, discussions, presentations, field work, or group work.

I think they all worked well together. I think Swanson does a good job at working in several different components into her courses that keep students attentive.

6. INSTRUCTION: How effective was the instructor in fostering learning? Consider as appropriate the instructor's ability to enable the development of skills, facilitate discussion, help you to understand concepts, course material, and their significance.

In regards to material & discussion, she conveyed it well. I do wish she held us more accountable. I know I would've put a lot more work in knowing that I would be tested on grammar or the readings. In turn, I would've also learned more.

WHY did you make the recommendation above?

I've always enjoyed my courses with Prof. Swanson. She is very engaging, understanding, and knowledgeable about the subjects. She always brings in different perspectives & angles to the course. I always suggest her courses to friends.

Thank you for your time and thoughtful consideration.

1. LEARNING: What have you learned from this course? Consider, as appropriate, how the course deepened your critical or analytical abilities, factual knowledge, understanding of concepts, creativity, communication skills, and ability to pursue further work in the subject.

I learned about colonial and post colonial concepts (eg: the gaze). I garnered new ideas from an assortment of media (eg: books, comics, documentaries, articles, powerpoints)

2. YOUR PARTICIPATION: How would you assess your own effort in the course? How much effort did you expend as compared to your other classes?

My effort for this class was high but well-received. My effort expended on an equal playing field for this class with that of other classes.

3. COURSE CONTENT AND FORMAT: How did the various components of the course contribute to your learning? Consider, as appropriate, lectures, readings, writing assignments, problem sets, films, labs, drills, studio work, debates, discussions, presentations, field work, or group work.

All the components (I used to study and learn about subjects in class) each bolstered my budding ideas in unique ways. For instance, the comics helped me envision concepts and ideas I felt limited through via the tradition of the French language.

1. LEARNING: What have you learned from this course? Consider, as appropriate, how the course deepened your critical or analytical abilities, factual knowledge, understanding of concepts, creativity, communication skills, and ability to pursue further work in the subject.

I've learned how to read post-colonial texts and look at other post-colonial forms of art in a way that can help me understand not only French culture, but also cultures of many other French speaking countries as well

2. YOUR PARTICIPATION: How would you assess your own effort in the course? How much effort did you expend as compared to your other classes?

I put in about as much effort into this class as I did in my others

3. COURSE CONTENT AND FORMAT: How did the various components of the course contribute to your learning? Consider, as appropriate, lectures, readings, writing assignments, problem sets, films, labs, drills, studio work, debates, discussions, presentations, field work, or group work.

I thought the readings were really great and helped add context to the other forms of media we looked at. Lectures were always interesting and fun and further increased my learning

1. LEARNING: What have you learned from this course? Consider, as appropriate, how the course deepened your critical or analytical abilities, factual knowledge, understanding of concepts, creativity, communication skills, and ability to pursue further work in the subject.

I learned about the influence of the colonial gaze and orientalism in Francophone literature. I learned about the tension between individual ethnic identity and former French influence. I also learned about French colonial history.

2. YOUR PARTICIPATION: How would you assess your own effort in the course? How much effort did you expend as compared to your other classes?

I found that the effort required is what I would anticipate from a 400 level class.

3. COURSE CONTENT AND FORMAT: How did the various components of the course contribute to your learning? Consider, as appropriate, lectures, readings, writing assignments, problem sets, films, labs, drills, studio work, debates, discussions, presentations, field work, or group work.

I enjoyed how multimedia this class was. The films, comic books, and novels helped give diverse perspectives on a diverse subject. I felt that the different types of media kept a difficult subject engaging.
