1. LEARNING: What have you learned from this course? Consider, as appropriate, how the course deepened your critical or analytical abilities, factual knowledge, understanding of concepts, creativity, communication skills, and ability to pursue further work in the subject.

The course gave me the opportunity to become more well-versed in conversational French and provided a good foundation for me to build my French skills on.

2. YOUR PARTICIPATION: How would you assess your own effort in the course? How much effort did you expend as compared to your other classes?

French was one of my comparatively easier courses. I paid enough attention in class and did the homework. I did not have to spend too much time on it.

3. COURSE CONTENT AND FORMAT: How did the various components of the course contribute to your learning? Consider, as appropriate, lectures, readings, writing assignments, problem sets, films, labs, drills, studio work, debates, discussions, presentations, field work, or group work.

The use of media in building comprehension skills and sustaining interest was very encouraging. Secondly, the blog posts gave us a good opportunity to utilize and practice what we did in class.

1. LEARNING: What have you learned from this course? Consider, as appropriate, how the course deepened your critical or analytical abilities, factual knowledge, understanding of concepts, creativity, communication skills, and ability to pursue further work in the subject.

I learned to appreciate language more. I took this class so I could communicate with my roommates back home and have conversations using a little more sense.

2. YOUR PARTICIPATION: How would you assess your own effort in the course? How much effort did you expend as compared to your other classes?

I would assess my own being alot more than my other classes. Here I had to memorize and use time to apply my applied knowledge. I had so challenge for me I study.

3. COURSE CONTENT AND FORMAT: How did the various components of the course contribute to your learning? Consider, as appropriate, lectures, readings, writing assignments, problem sets, films, labs, drills, studio work, debates, discussions, presentations, field work, or group work.

I wish there was more reading and drills on vocabulary. We talked alot on grammar and writing instead of speaking a reading.

1. LEARNING: What have you learned from this course? Consider, as appropriate, how the course deepened your critical or analytical abilities, factual knowledge, understanding of concepts, creativity, communication skills, and ability to pursue further work in the subject

I gained an elementary understanding of French. My professor spoke French for about 95% of the class which helped me even better pronunciation and understanding skills. The language lab conversation hours had to do really helped me with speaking the language.

2. YOUR PARTICIPATION: How would you assess your own effort in the course? How much effort did you expend as compared to your other classes?

I put in a lot of effort for this course though the work load was definitely manageable. I did the homework assignments for every class and completed the lab hours.

3. COURSE CONTENT AND FORMAT: How did the various components of the course contribute to your learning? Consider, as appropriate, lectures, readings, writing assignments, problem sets, films, labs, drills, studio work, debates, discussions, presentations, field work, or group work.

The lab work helped me to speak French. The writing assignments and supplementary videos gave me an understanding of French culture and improved my reading. All components helped to give me a full knowledge of French.

Amazing!! It was a pleasure to write professor Hester. She brings so much energy and vigor to the class and is very diligent in her concern for the students' well-being. She also is able to help a group of about three students, one being a lacrosse player (surprise!) who demonstrated no interest in learning anything. I was impressed with her ability to prevent them from impeding on others' ability to learn.
